“ Dearest Aunt Vicki-

Yes it's true that as a child I was deathly afraid of "mean Aunt Vicki", my Godmother, and I do remember crying sometimes because I was so afraid of you. As I got older and got to know you better, I learned that you were a sweet, gentle woman with a huge heart. I still have memories of visiting your home as a child and your apartment as an adult when you lived near mom. I think the biggest thing I am thankful for was getting mom out of the house and enjoying life after dad passed away. I think it really helped mom and got her involved with activities when I'm sure she didn't want to do anything after dad passed away. I know I didn't get to see you much over the past recent years, but you were always in my thoughts, along with everyone else. I do miss the days of the reunions, it was always great to see everyone and I know Aunt Anna worked very hard on them. I loved you very much Aunt Vicki and I know you are up there in heaven (I hope God has a smoking section because otherwise I don't know if you would've stayed, lol). Say hi to Dad, Grandma, Uncle Freddy, Aunt Winnie and all our other relatives for us. I'm sorry to Doug, Eric, Greg, Leif and all their families for their loss. Aunt Vicki really was a special lady and with everything she went through, certainly a strong lady. God Rest Your Soul. Love you very much, Jackie, Patrick, Isabella and Noelle xoxo

“ Dear Aunt Vicki,
As a children we were often afraid of you, especially Jackie. I remember the only way she would kiss you good-bye when we left your house was if you let her blow out a match. Well we've come a long way. As an adult we became very close. As I remember I even fixed you up with Al.(it worked for a few years). We were practically neighbors out in Riverhead and we bowled on the same team. I enjoyed every moment spent with you. I remember the time my dog went into your pocketbook and when she lifted her head she had a cigarette in her mouth like she was ready to smoke it, we all got a kick out of it. Last year Danielle and I made a trip to NY and had a good time visiting you. She really enjoyed our visit, she hadn't seen you since she was young and loved your sense of humor. She insisted we make time to visit you before we left for the airport. You asked me why I dragged her to see you and I told you she wanted to come. We both love you and will always have fond memories of you. Enjoy Pop, uncle Freddie and grandma, tell them we said hi!
Love you always,
Lisa, Rocco and Danielle

Dear Eric, Doug, Greg and Leif, our thoughts and prayers are with you. May you find comfort in knowing your mom is resting in peace. Aunt Vicky, you always made us laugh and it makes me smile to think of you, Uncle Ernie and my dad together again. I can hear the laughter and joy!
