“ Vinny was exceptional Not only at his job but as a caring individual. He was my road buddy being that I was the only other band member in Kirks camp that traveled from NY. He always looked out for me and even extended himself when he did not have to. He will be sorely missed. Praying for his family and all of his friends along the way.

“ Vinnie was always so funny and up to no good, he made me laugh! I'm sorry I couldn't come to the wake, I'm really sorry. I loved him and hope he is in Gods hands now and with his Dad playing the banjo!!

“Vince was so talented, like his Dad, my Cousin. He played the banjo and guitar, and we always looked forward to Our family gatherings With he and his Dad performing together. Vince was also a sound tech for famous musical headliners and we had the honor to see him do his magic and see their performance. Vince was a thoughtful man, a loving and devoted son, brother, Uncle, great uncle, cousin and friend to many. Rest In Peace Cousin, Gone but never forgotten. With love and great sadness, Susan, John and Family.
