

Vincent Morando

June 8, 1926 - June 3, 2014

Vincent Morando of Centerport, New York, touched everyone he met during his extraordinary life. He greeted everyone with the same warm hello and was loved by all who were fortunate enough to know him. Vincent lived a life filled with loving family, numerous good friends, hard work, and a generous and indomitable spirit. Vincent passed away on June 3rd, 2014, at the age of 87.

Vincent was born on June 8, 1926, in Huntington Station, New York, to Thomas and Luisa Morando. He worked at the New York Telephone Company for over 30 years. A true patriot, Vincent served his country honorably in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He was a gifted athlete who played professional minor league baseball and was a life-long golfer, finally scoring a hole in one when he was 70 years old. Vincent passed his love of the outdoors, physical activity, and sports to his children and grandchildren. He did whatever it took to attend all his sons' sporting events. He leaves a legacy of honesty, responsibility, strength of character, and integrity that lives on in his loving wife and children.

He married the love of his life, Rose Marie on August 17, 1952, and was a devoted and loving husband. Vincent is also survived by his beloved children Greg (Maria), Sharon, James (Elisabeth), Gary, and grandchildren Angela, Gabriella, and Vincent. He was the cherished brother of Dr. Salvatore Morando and the late Viola Teigue. He also leaves behind extended family, friends and neighbors.

Vincent Morando brightened our world, and we are all better people because of him. Go with God, beloved husband, father, grandpa, brother, uncle, and friend.

“ Having been a roommate with Gary years ago I really enjoyed visits from his family, particularly his parents. The minute I met Vince it felt as though he was someone I had known for years. His quiet and friendly demeanor instantly made me comfortable and realize how easy it was to talk to him. At times when he would call to talk to Gary and I would answer the phone he always took a few minutes to ask how I was doing and what was new in my life and I knew he genuinely cared. Gary is one of my best friends and the qualities and attributes I admire most in him are a tribute to the special man from which he inherited them. God Bless Vince and the entire Morando family.

“ Gary, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember vividly how your eyes would light up when you spoke about your Dad and how we would laugh about the family traditions our families had in common. Thinking about you and your family. I will see you next Friday xo Raquel

“ Dear Gary and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. I found this poem many years ago and I thought it might help. With love, Cheryl K Ruth-Brooks

“I’m Free”

*Don’t grieve for me, for now I’m free.
I am following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
Of a friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
And yet these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life’s been full, I savored much -
Good friends, good times, a loved one’s touch*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don’t lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
