“ I have had the privilege of calling Vinny my neighbor for over 22 years when I moved across the street from him, Helen, and Michael! He had been a smiling face ever since! We would commiserate over the cold and snow while shoveling in the frigid winters or over the heat in the humid dog days of the summer, laughing as we always realized that the weather never seemed to "just be right"! He watched with delight as my boys were born and grew up...and supported them in their efforts to go through the ranks of scouting! He will be sadly missed by his extended family on the block! Peter and I, along with Stephen & Christopher extend our prayers and sympathy to Helen and the family!
