“ Sending my prayers and deepest condolences to the family. I have so many great memories of my Aunt Ginger, and I wish i could have been there to pay my respects to a very special lady. She will forever remain in my heart, and she now with good company up above watching over us. I will miss her everyday and especially on my wedding day and hope that she took fond memories of me as well when she went. Sending big hugs to both her daughter Jennifer and my Uncle Larry who I love with all my heart. Although I can't be there in person, I am with you in spirit during this tough time! :) Love Always, Chrissa
