“ Uncle Billy was at my wedding 29 years ago. I was the first of my many cousins to get married at age 24 in 1996. My mom, his oldest sister, and our family had been away from the family living in Asia for many years so my wedding was the first time the whole family had reconnected in awhile. I asked if Alicia, my youngest cousin, could be our ring bearer. Graciously, the arrangements were made and Alicia at age 6 made a beautiful addition to the wedding party. What stands out is a memory of talking to my Uncle the night before I was married and his grave concern that my beautiful little six year old cousin might not follow the rules and might “bomb” the wedding. It makes me smile through tears now because he was so worried that I had to make him feel better and explain that it would be hard for a six year old to mess up because even if she were running in circles around the guests, I was just happy to have a little girl in the wedding party and that I was getting married and that everyone could be there. In the end, Alicia looked beautiful and was the perfect ring bearer in every way. And I remember how pleased afterwards that everything went well. It’s hard to believe that so much time has passed. I wish that he had been blessed with more time to make more memories with his newest family members. He will be missed.

“ So sorry to learn of Billy’s passing. I have many happy memories of visiting with the Conroy cousins in Long Island and Rochester. Billy visited our family a few times too as a young adult. He was so friendly and kind and filled with adventure. Praying for you all
